Information about the Graduated Driver License Phases

Graduated Driver License – Phase 1

____ ____ 1) The Permit carries a MUST HOLD DATE which is six months (180 days) from the date of issue. For each day that the permit is expired a day will be added to the original six month (180 days) period before it can be renewed as a Provisional License. The Expiration date is printed on the Permit, Hardship License and it must be renewed by that date. The renewal date is based on the BIRTHDAY and not on the six-month date.

Graduated Driver License – Phase II

Class A, B, or C Driver’s licenses:

The Texas Transportation Code, Section 545:424, restricts the driving privileges of persons under 18 years of age during the six-month period following the issuance of a class A, B, or C driver’s license (provisional license). These persons may NOT operate a motor vehicle:

1. After midnight and before 5:00 a.m. unless the operation of the vehicle is necessary for the operator to attend or participate in employment or a school-related activity or because of a medical emergency.
2. With more than one passenger in the vehicle under 21 years of age who is not a family member.
 - a. The passenger and/or time limitations do not apply to the holder of a “hardship license” of if the provisional license holder is accompanied by a person occupying the seat by the operator who:
 - i. Holds a license that qualifies the op
 - iii. Has at least one year of driving experience.
